

YOUR GLOBAL CONNECTIVITY KIT-FREE OF COST

Dear Subscriber,

The GS1 number allocated to you, entitles you to upload your company/product information on the GEPIR service of GS1 India (www.gs1india.org.in)

Once uploaded, you link with 1 million companies across the world who are accessed by buyers and sellers using GS1 numbers as company/product identifiers.

The GEPIR service enables global users to simply key in a GS1 prefix number through any of the 67 web-sites of GS1 organizations (will cover all 101 GS1 organizations shortly) and get your contact particulars, product details etc.

This service is free (for basic information) for subscribers and we urge you to avail of it to get exposure to national and international markets.

For steps on how to upload, see Annexure 'A' enclosed. Or mail us at: info@gs1india.org

With best regards,

(Mukesh Mann)
